Dear Sir.

Have been asked many times
made at the mint this year. that a collector can buy a proof
set early in the year
and these having been some take of changing
design on coins, would like to buy them if any made or are
for sale. by buying
them in proof set
or otherwise.

Yours very truly.

Dear Sir.

Have there been any patterns pieces made at the mint this year that a collector can buy? I bought a proof set early in the year and there having been some talk of changing design in coins would like to buy them if any were made & are for sale by buying them in a proof set or otherwise.

Your very truly,
